Mission to the
Navajo Nation
Cedar Springs, AZ

Summer
2012

Where are the students going?
Navajo Reservation in Cedar Springs, AZ

What are the dates of the servant event?
June 23 - July 1

Which organization is handling our mission trip?

Team Effort, the same youth mission organization that we have served with the past three years.

Who will be attending the servant event?
90 students and counselors from Gloria Dei.

What will we be doing?

We will work to improve local ministry facilities, build new homes, and bring homes back to livable conditions. In addition to hands-on projects, we will have the opportunity to spend time with parents and children on the reservation for outreach through recreation, music, and programs.

What will we do during free time?

At the end of the week we plan to spend a day visiting the Grand Canyon. Afternoon plans include hiking in the Little Painted Desert, swimming at the Climbing Rock, and crawling through Lookout Cave.

Where do we sleep?

We will stay at a church mission group facility on the Navajo Reservation with bunk housing, dining area, and chapel.

How much does it cost?

*$500 if $50 deposit is received by January 8
$550 if $50 deposit is received by January 29
$600 if $50 deposit is received after January 29*

When do we pay the rest?

Non-refundable payments are due as follows:

*$150 due on March 4
$150 due on April 1
$150 due on May 6
Final balance due on June 3*

What if I need financial assistance?

Partial scholarships are available. Please talk to Pastor Lonnie prior to registering for the trip.

What adults will be going?

We will need an appropriate number of adults to provide for a safe and secure environment for our students throughout the trip. If you would like more information on adult pricing and adult expectations, please see Kurt Rosenhagen or Linda Wild.

Why attend a servant event?

*To Love as a Servant
To Live as a Friend
To Learn as a Follower
To Lead as a Guide*

How do I sign up?

Complete this Application Form and give it to Linda Wild with a non-refundable deposit of $50 (per the pricing structure mentioned under the "How much does it cost?" section). We currently have 75 student spaces reserved.
