Which organization is handling our mission trip?

Team Effort, the same youth mission organization that we have served with the past four years.

Who will be attending the servant event?
Up to 42 students currently in grades 6-12 and counselors.

What will we be doing?
We will reach out to help struggling families on the reservation through general home repairs and renovations, building wheelchair ramps, and re-roofing homes. In addition to hands-on projects, we will have the opportunity to spend time with parents and children on the reservation for outreach through recreation, music, and programs.

What will we do during free time?
We will be in the Black Hills Region, which includes the Badlands, Mount Rushmore, Custer State Park, Crazy Horse Monument, and caving,

Where do we sleep?
We will stay on the Sioux Indian Reservation.

$100 due on March 3
$100 due on April 7
$100 due on May 5
Final balance due on June 2*

What if I need financial assistance?
Partial scholarships are available. Please talk to Pastor Lonnie prior to registering for the trip.

What adults will be going?
We will need an appropriate number of adults to provide for a safe and secure environment for our students throughout the trip. If you would like more information on adult pricing and adult expectations, please see Kurt Rosenhagen or Linda Wild.

Why attend a servant event?
*To Love as a Servant
To Live as a Friend
To Learn as a Follower
To Lead as a Guide*

How do I sign up?
Complete this Application Form and give it to Linda Wild with a non-refundable deposit of $100 (per the pricing structure mentioned under the "How much does it cost?" section). We currently have 42 student spaces reserved.
