Blessed to be a Blessing (Questions from Page 30 of Text)

From the Christian vantage point, in what significant way did the Jews fulfill their destiny "to be a blessing"? (Romans 9:1-5)

How does the destiny given to Abram and his seed compare to the destiny given to the church of Jesus Christ?

What evidences are there in the New Testament that some of the people had failed to see the Covenant at Sinai in its proper relationship to the Covenant at Ur? (Mark 2:23-28)

What indications are there in the New Testament that people within the chosen family become blessings in different ways? (1 Corinthians 12:1-31)

The destiny concept makes it evident that God uses the "human lot" to carry out His ministry upon the earth.

How does this theme harmonize with:

- the way in which the Scriptures came to us
- the way in which salvation came to the world
- the way in which the Church has acted as an authoritative voice on such matters as canonizing the Scriptures
