Added sanity to this radical group, Organized scattered Anabaptists into congregations
Mennonites = Group named after Simons, Heavily persecuted, Many moved to America in 1600s

Individual Religion = Nothing can intrude on one’s personal relationship with God, push for personal decisions
No authority of church or state, no creed, no sacrament, no pastor can stand between God & the individual
A step beyond congregationalism = Congregation is autonomous

Creeds - None = Since none are directly from the Bible, Conflicts with individualism
Wide diversity of teachings = Typically conservative in South, Many are extremely liberal
Most Baptists are Calvinists - Once saved, always saved = SBC is modified Calvinistic
Arminian influence grew in 1700s from George Whitefield = British revival preacher with Wesleys

Legalistic = Christianity is the "Life of Law", Church must be the "conscience of the state" (From Anabaptist ban)
No liquor, tobacco, playing on Sundays, dancing, card playing, movies
Separation of church & state is important = History of persecutions from not joining the state church

Adventist History

William Miller (1792-1849) = New York Farmer turned Baptist minister
1816 - Became Baptist = Immediately dove into Scriptures, focussing on Daniel and Revelation Predicted Christ's Second Coming in 1843-1844 = Calculated based on his translations of:
Daniel 8:13-14 = 2300 days until sanctuary would be reconsecrated (sanc. = earth)
Numbers 14:34 = 1 day equals 1 year
Between 50K and 100K from varied denominations joined movement = Called Millerites
The Great Disappointment - October 22, 1844
Made new prediction when that didn't occur = Most adventists left, Finally gave up on specific dates
1845 - American Millennial Association = Formed in New York by remnant adventists

Millennialism - Revelation 20:1-6

Premillennialism = Jesus will return to earth as a King to rule the earth in peace & blessedness for 1000 years
Rapture - 1 Thess. 4:16-17 = Christ will return invisibly to remove believers before tribulation
Great Tribulation = God's wrath will be poured out, Antichrist revealed, Israel will accept Christ
Millennial Kingdom = Jesus will rule 1000 years, Judge nations, fulfill prophecies, release & destroy Satan
Second Resurrection = God will judge, destroy death and hell, create new heaven and earth
Dispensationalism = Similar to Premillennialism but has seven eras ("dispensations"):
1 - Age of Eden up to Adam's fall = Paradise
2 - Age of conscience = From Adam's fall until flood, People ruled mostly by conscience
3 - Age of human government = From start of capital punishment (Gen 9:6) until Sodom destroyed
4 - Age of patriarchs = From Abraham until Pharaoh's army destroyed in the Red Sea
5 - Age of Moses = From Mount Sinai until Christ's crucifixion
6 - Age of Christianity = From Pentecost until Great Tribulation - nations judged & Antichrist destroyed
7 - Age of Manifestation = From rapture, through millennial reign, until Satan destroyed & Judgment
Postmillennialism = Christ's Second Coming occurs after the millennium instead of before it
Could be a literal period of peace, or symbolic of the triumph of the gospel
Amillennialism = Not a literal millennial rule of Christ on earth but symbolic of time from First to Second Comings
Continuous development of good and evil until Christ returns = Dead raised, then Judgment

LCMS on Millennialism (from A Brief Statement of the Doctrinal Position of the Missouri Synod, 1932)

We reject every type of millennialism. ... Scripture clearly teaches that:
The kingdom of Christ on earth will remain under the cross until the end of the world; that (Acts 14:22; John 16:33; 18:36; Luke 9:23; 14:27; 17:20-37; 18:8; 2 Tim 4:18; Heb 12:28)
The second visible coming of the Lord will be His final advent, His coming to judge the quick and the dead; that (Matthew 24:29, 30; 25:31; 2 Timothy 4:1; 2 Thessalonians 2:8; Hebrews 9:26-28)
There will be but one resurrection of the dead; that (John 5:28; 6:39, 40)
The time of the Last Day is, and will remain, unknown, which would not be the case if the Last Day were to come a thousand years after the beginning of a millennium; and that (Matthew 24:42; 25:13; Mark 13:32, 37; Acts 1:7)
There will be no general conversion, a conversion en masse, of the Jewish nation,
(Romans 11:7; 2 Corinthians 3:14; Romans 11:25; 1 Thessalonians 2:16)
According to these clear passages of Scripture we reject the whole of Millennialism, since it not only contradicts Scripture, but also engenders a false conception of the kingdom of Christ, turns the hope of Christians upon earthly goals, and leads them to look upon the Bible as an obscure book.
