Jesus Raises Lazarus

John 11

Opening

Gathering: What different ways do people respond to death?

Today's Focus: Jesus allowed His friends to go through suffering in order to bring others to saving faith.

Key Verses: I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in Me will never die. John 11:25-26

When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, He was deeply moved in spirit and troubled. Jesus wept. John 11:33, 35

A Time for Mourning (John 11:17-19)

Had Jesus spent the extra time to wait for Lazarus to die?

John 11:17

Had Mary and Martha spent the time mourning by themselves?

John 11:18-19

While a body was in the house, no one ate meat, drank wine, wore phylacteries or studied

No food was prepared in the house or eaten in presence of the dead

After the body was removed, furniture was reversed and mourners sat on ground or low stools

Burial followed death as soon as possible because of warm climate

Wrapped in simple linen clothes - traveling-dress

Tradition had been to use finest spices and ointments, magnificent robes, valuables

Rabbi Gamaliel changed tradition with orders to be buried in the simplest linen robe

Separate linen wrapping for bodies, hands, feet and head

As many as possible joined the funeral procession, led by the mourning women
Memorial speeches were made at the tomb, principal mourners walked back between lines
As mourners left the tomb, they turned and said, "Depart in peace"
No idle or uninvited talk, mourners were left alone with their sorrow
After returning from the tomb, friends of the family served a meal of bread, eggs and lentils
Round hard-boiled eggs and lentils symbolized life always rolling to death
7 days of deep mourning (first 3 were days of weeping) were followed by 30 days of lighter mourning
Forbidden to anoint oneself, put on shoes, do any study or business, or even wash
Friends and relatives would visit the family during mourning to express sympathy
All joined in hysterical wailing - The more unrestrained, the more honor to the dead

Past the Third Day (John 11:38-39)

Did Jesus get over His emotion by the time He reached the tomb?

John 11:38

Palestinian tombs - Wealthy family tombs were natural caves or hewn out of the rock

Body first laid in entrance chamber, then moved to back chamber (6'L x 9'W x 10'H)

Shelves cut into rock to hold bodies, bones moved to bone box (ossuary) to make space

No door, Large round stone rolled in groove in front of opening to seal the grave

How did Martha react when Jesus asked for the grave to be opened?

John 11:39

Mourners monitored grave for three days; believed spirit hung around body looking to get back in

Spirit left completely by fourth day since body would be too decomposed to recognize

Without medical confirmation, some dead could still be alive; after 3 days they were really dead

See the Glory of God! (John 11:40-44)

John 12:9-11 (17-19)

Closing Prayer

Response - Consider and meditate on one each day this week

1. How do I support friends when they go through difficult times?
(John 11:18-19, 31, 33; Romans 12:13-15; 2 Corinthians 1:3-7; Philippians 2:1-5; Col. 3:12-14)
2. When have I been upset with God for not responding to a situation in a time and way that I wanted?
(John 11:21, 32; 2 Kings 6:15-17; Job 23:1-5; 24:1; Psalm 27:13-14; 40:1-2; 2 Peter 3:8-9)
3. How certain am I that God will raise the faithful, including me?
(John 11:22-26; 5:28-29; 14:1-6; Job 19:25-27; Daniel 12:2; Acts 24:15; 1 Corinthians 15:12-58; Philippians 3:10-11; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18; 1 Peter 3:3-5)
4. Who do I say that Jesus is?
(John 11:25-27; 1:41, 49; 7:40-43; 9:17, 28-32; 20:28; Matthew 16:13-20; 26:63-65; 27:11, 54)
5. When and how have I experienced Jesus' love and compassion?
(John 11:33-35; 19:26-27; Exodus 34:6-7; Deut. 5:9-10; Matthew 9:36; 14:13-14; 15:32; 20:29-34; Romans 9:14-16; James 5:10-11)
