Opening

Gathering: When has someone personally shown God's love to you and how did it feel?

Today's Focus: God has called us to love and care for one another as He has first loved us.

Key Verses: Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God. Ruth 1:16

Praise be to the Lord, who this day has not left you without a kinsman-redeemer. Ruth 4:14

Old Testament Harvesting

Harvesting grain in ancient Canaan took place in April and May (barley first, wheat a few weeks later)

1. Men cut ripened standing grain with hand sickles or pulled out of ground
2. Women bound the grain into sheaves
3. Gleaning - Stalks left behind were gathered
4. Sheaves were transported to the threshing floor - usually by donkey, sometimes by cart
5. Threshing - The grain was loosened from the straw by treading of cattle, by toothed threshing sledges or by the wheels of carts
6. Winnowing - Grain tossed in air so afternoon wind would blow away straw and chaff
7. Sifting - Grain was sifted to remove any leftover chaff, dirt, etc.
8. Grain was bagged for transportation and storage

Response - Consider and meditate on one each day this week

1. How do I act when I am all-alone and no one is watching?
(Judges 17:6; Ruth 2:11-12; 2 Samuel 12:12; Psalm 44:21; 90:8; Matthew 6:1-18; Eph 5:1-21)
2. For whom would I forsake everything to go where they go?
(Ruth 1:16-17; Deut 31:6-8, 16-18; Proverbs 4:1-6; 27:10; Mark 10:28; Luke 5:11, 28)
3. Who do I try to please or impress where I would make their god my god?
(Ruth 1:16-17; 1 Kings 11:1-13; 2 Kings 17:7-20; Matthew 6:33; Mark 10:29-30)
4. When have I gone out of my way to care for those in need?
(Ruth 2:8-16; Proverbs 14:31; Matthew 10:40-42; 25:31-46; Luke 10:25-37; 1:5-13)
5. Do I see my part in God's overall plan?
(Ruth 4:17-22; Matthew 1:1, 5-6; Romans 12:4-8; 1 Corinthians 12:12-31; Ephesians 3:1-14)
