David and Bathsheba

2 Samuel 8 - 12

Opening

Gathering: Share a time when you did something wrong as a kid, expecting that no one would know about it, and you were later confronted with it. How did you react?

Today's Focus: David was faithful and God blessed him with success. This success made him feel he was beyond the law and he sinned greatly. He confessed and repented when God confronted him with his sin and God forgave him. God likewise knows our sins and calls us to repent and be forgiven.

Key Verses: The Lord gave David victory wherever he went. King David dedicated these articles to the Lord.

*Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord."
Nathan replied, "The Lord has taken away your sin." 2 Samuel 12:13*
