The Harvest Field

Did Jesus come to save only those who are members of His Church?

1 Timothy 2:3-6

Since God's wants to save all people, will all be saved?

John 3:36

What is God's plan to get the saving message of the gospel to all people?

John 20:21

God's Plan

When Jesus ascended into heaven, the angel Gabriel approached Him and commented, "Master, you must have suffered terribly for men down there."

"I did", He said.

Gabriel asked, "Do they know all about how you loved them and what you did for them?"

"Oh, no," said Jesus, "not yet. Right now only a handful of people in Palestine know."

Gabriel was perplexed. "Then what have you done to let everyone know about your love for them?"

Jesus said, "I've asked Peter, James, John and a few more friends to tell other people about Me. Those who are told will in turn tell other people about Me, and My story will be spread to the farthest reaches of the globe. Ultimately, all of mankind will hear about My life and what I have done."

Gabriel frowned and looked rather skeptical. He knew well the sinfulness and irresponsibility of people. "Yes," he said, "but what if Peter and James and John grow weary? What if the people who come after them forget? What if way down in the 20th century people just don't tell others about You? Haven't You made any other plans?"

Jesus answered, "I haven't made any other plans. I'm counting on them."

Twenty centuries later ... He still has no other plan. He's counting on you and me. His early disciples adopted His priorities and devoted themselves to reaching their world. Christ counted on them and they delivered. Have we done as well?

Did Jesus make a mistake by giving us this responsibility?

What happens if we do not accept this responsibility?

Are you willing to accept and respond to this responsibility?

What ways have you responded to this responsibility in the past?

Your Friends

How are we to systematically make disciples of all nations?

Acts 1:8

What is our world? Where is our Jerusalem?

Luke 5:27-32

How should we consider the relationships we have with unchurched people?

Esther 4:14b

How do we respond to our calling as God's way for our friends to hear His saving message?

Acts 4:20

What kinds of things do you share with your friends and neighbors?

Free Cars

John Smith was the greatest car dealer ever. He went out of his way to make sure everyone could get the car of their dreams. People came from all over to buy cars from him.

His commitment to putting everyone behind the wheel of a great vehicle became even more obvious when he died. In his will, he gave instructions that the zillions of dollars of his estate be used to buy brand new cars for everyone in the community.

Mr. Smith's dealership posted signs announcing the good news of the free cars. Some people responded and picked up new cars. Many others didn't believe it could be true so they just ignored the signs.

I heard about what Mr. Smith had done and picked up my new car. It was that easy. I just had to accept what he had already bought for me.

I told you about it and you got your new car. As you drive around the neighborhood in your new car, you notice your neighbors working on their old klunkers trying to keep them running. You wonder why no one has told them about the new cars waiting for them.

As you keep driving, you see your brother walking along the road. You stop to pick him up in your new car and take him the rest of the way to the grocery store. After you drop him off, you make a wish that someone will tell him about the car waiting for him.

The next day at work, one of your co-workers arrives a half-hour late because his car broke down. If only he would pick up his new car so he wouldn't have such problems.

You sit back in your chair and think about how much you love your new car. It fits you just right and it was exactly what you needed. Mr. Smith did a really great thing for you.

As you think about this great gift, you remember your family, friends, neighbors and co-workers who are desperately in need of a new car like yours. If only someone would tell them that new cars are waiting for them to pick up.

You decide that you need to get involved and do something about it. You decide to write a letter to the dealership complaining that they aren't getting the word out enough. You ask them to do a better job of sending out people specially trained in sharing the good news.

How is this story similar to what Jesus did for us?

What is the best way for your brother to find out about the new car?

What would you risk by telling others about the new cars?

What would you gain by telling others about the new cars?

Would you react as in the story, or would you tell your friends and neighbors without hesitation about the great gifts waiting for them?

Do you tell others about the greatest free gift awaiting them?

I'm So Overwhelmed

Why do we get afraid of simply telling others about the great gift God has waiting for them?

Luke 10:1-3

How large is the harvest field?

Matthew 28:19-20a

How does He expect us to make disciple of all nations?

Matthew 28:20b

A woman walking across the beach one morning was surprised to see hundreds of starfish scattered all over the beach. She was saddened by the thought that they would all die on the hot, dry beach before the next high tide would cover them with water.

She looked up and saw a weathered old man stooping to pick up a starfish. He threw the starfish into the water and reached down to pick up another one. She watched as he again and again bent down to lift a starfish from the sand and launch it into the distant surf. Finally she asked him what he was doing.

"Many mornings when I come to the beach I find lots of starfish stranded by the night's high tide." He said. "If someone doesn't throw them back, they'll die!"

She exclaimed, "But there are thousands of them. You can't possibly throw them all back. What difference can you make?"

The old man paused for a moment, then silently bent down to pick up a starfish lying at his feet. As he threw the starfish into the sea, the woman heard him say, "Made a difference to that one!"

The Unchurched

US citizens who call themselves Lutheran: _____ million

Lutheran churches record a membership total of _____ million

Gallup Poll of US population:

_____ % actively involved (attend regularly, give sacrificially, serve willingly)

_____ % just members (attend irregularly, minimal support)

_____ % dechurched (years away from church, often consider selves Christian)

_____ % unchurched (little or no interest or background in Christianity)

Where to Find The Unchurched

Jerusalem - Family and close friends

Judea - Regular acquaintances

Samaria - Under the rug

Ends of the Earth - Within your heart

Homework

1. Make lists of people in your life under each category
2. Arrange the names in a "web". Draw lines showing how you are connected.
Are there any names you missed? Write them in.
Are there any other connections between the people you have identified? Draw them in.
3. Picture these people in your mind. What specific needs do you know about?
What are their strengths? What gifts has God given them that He could use in His kingdom?
Are any going through any transitions in their lives?
4. Pray for the people you identified.
Pray for God's guidance to be a friend to someone who needs to hear about Jesus.
Pray for help in overcoming personal obstacles that would interfere with relationships.
5. Choose one person on whom you are willing to focus.
Watch for where God may put you in the right place at the right time with the right person.
6. If you have the book, read Chapter 1 and answer the questions at the end (page 20).

Questions You May Have

What am I doing here? - God has chosen you to be a friend & empowered you to share His gift.

Why am I doing this? - You can't help it. God has motivated you through love for your friend.

How do I have the right to talk to others about their relationship with God? - You are a redeemed child of God, perfect in His eyes. God gave you things in common with others to open opportunities to share your own experiences and moments of doubt and faith.
