A True Friend

How does being a friend show someone that you care? Or, does it help you look like you care?

Proverbs 17:17

How did Jesus summarize God's moral laws in two "easy" commands?

Luke 10:27

What must we share with another before we can share our faith and the hope God has given us?

1 Corinthians 13:13

How did Jesus illustrate that friendship without love and care is no friendship at all?

Luke 10:29-37

Scenario 1

A man was traveling from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves who robbed him of all that he had and left him lying by the side of the road. Before long a member of the church came by and saw the man lying there.

Chuck: Hello there! I'm Charlie and I'm a member of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church.

Fred (injured man): Mmmmmm. (Groans)

Chuck: Speak up, man. God helps those who help themselves, you know. You look very ... dirty. If you'd clean up a bit you could come to my church. We have a parish nurse program that could be of some real help. How does that sound?

Fred: Well, I could use some help all right, but I don't think I could ...

Chuck: Of course you could. Just set your mind to it. That's what I do. Once I was injured worse than you and I turned out okay.

Fred: Good for you. It's just that I can't seem to get my legs moving.

Chuck: What were you doing on this road, anyway? Everybody knows you're a target for trouble along here. Did they get all your money? I only travel with bare necessities, and I leave my credit cards at home. Next time you should, too.

Fred: Uh, yeah. (He tries to move.) Ow!

Chuck: When I'm having trouble, I pray about it. You know how to pray, don't you? You know ... confession, supplication, intercession, and all that? Didn't your mother ever teach you what's important? The Bible says, "Bring up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." It's pretty obvious somebody didn't get brought up in the way he should go. I guess you could just go to the Bible bookstore when you get to Jericho and look in the prayer section.

Fred: I don't want to go to the Bible bookstore. I don't want to read a prayer. And I don't want any part of your church or your God! I can take care of myself! (He limps away.)

Chuck (Calls after him): Hey, wait a minute. Here's a tract! Call the pastor if you need anything. (To himself) I guess you just can't help some people. That's the last time I try to share my faith!

Scenario 2

A man was traveling from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves who robbed him of all that he had and left him lying by the side of the road. Before long a member of the church came by and saw the man lying there.

Charlie (rushes to his side): Are you okay? Should I call 911?

Fred: I'm not sure. Just give me a minute to get my bearings.

Charlie: What happened? (He takes off his coat and puts pressure on a cut.)

Fred: I guess I should have known better. I know this route is dangerous; it's just that I was in such a hurry to get home.

Charlie: It's important for you to get home right away?

Fred: Yes, my wife called from the hospital. Our little girl was running a high fever so she took her in. I wanted to be there.

Charlie: I'll help you get going as fast as you can. Let's see. It looks like the bleeding has stopped. Did they get all your cash?

Fred: Every penny - and my credit cards.

Charlie: Where do you live?

Fred: Jericho - the Sycamore Creek section.

Charlie: I can go that way. Come on. Do you want to see a doctor first?

Fred: I just want to get home. Do you have any kids?

Charlie: Just one. In fact, I'm on my way to pick her up from a youth night at my church. I'll call from the hospital to tell her I'll be late. She'll be fine.

Fred: She'll probably worry.

Charlie: She knows she's in good hands until I get there. Say, I bet your daughter is pretty scared. Would it be all right if I prayed for her - and for you and your wife?

Fred: Pray? Sure. I guess it can't hurt. It's been a long time since I prayed about anything. Thanks. By the way, my name is Fred. I don't know what I would have done if you hadn't come along. Where in Jericho do you live? Maybe we could get together sometime.

Which of these was a friend to the man in trouble?
Which had an effective opportunity to witness?
Which made an effective witness? Why?

Dale Carnegie's Six Ways to Making Friends

1. Become genuinely interested in other people.
2. Smile.
3. Remember that a person's name is to them the sweetest and most important sound.
4. Be a good listener. Encourage others to talk about themselves.
5. Talk in terms of the other person's interest.
6. Make the other person feel important - and do it sincerely.

Your Relationship

Rate your relationship with the person you have chosen. (1 - mere acquaintance, 10 - close family member)

Ideas - If 5 or lower

1. Observe and listen to discover that person's special interests, hobbies and activities. How and where does that person spend time?
2. Which of these interests and activities do you have in common?
3. Strike up a conversation about those interests.
4. Make plans to participate together in enjoying them at a particular date or time. Think about when you first noticed your future spouse. How did you go about getting acquainted? Use the same techniques.
5. Pray for that person regularly. Ask that God would give you opportunities to develop a friendship and that He would provide ways in which you could share your faith.
6. Have fun together!

Ideas - If & when 6 or higher

1. Send a card on special occasions or just a humorous card for no reason at all which speaks to a common interest.
2. Invite your friend to your own family events. Get to know each other's spouses, friends and children.
3. Go to lunch together.
4. Help when needed with big and small needs.
5. Ask for help with your needs.
6. Talk about feelings and concerns.

Why are you doing this?

Are you manipulating someone in order to witness?

You are building:

Why has God instructed us to care for those around us and to share our faith with them?

1 Corinthians 12:12, 18, 27

Why did Paul try to befriend and please people?

1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1

Listening Skills

The most important tool for developing a caring relationship is:

Listening Pointers:

- Look the person in the eye, avoid distractions, pay attention
- Pay attention to facial expressions & body language
- Reflect back the feelings behind what you heard & ask building questions
- Use open-ended questions
- Use questions that clarify
- Stop and think about words before quickly responding
- Respect and keep confidentialities

Listening Traps to Avoid:

- Sending a quick-fix solution
- Evaluating and judging
- Withdrawing
- One-upping
- Diagnosing, analyzing & labeling

Showing Your Love

Besides being a good listener, how else can we show our love and concern to our friends?

1 John 3:18

How did Jesus explain this?

John 15:9, 12-14, 16-17

People are especially open to the Gospel message during times of _____

- | | | |
|------------------------------|--------------------------------|----------------------------|
| death of a spouse | divorce | marital separation |
| jail term | death of a close family member | personal illness or injury |
| marriage | loss of employment | marital reconciliation |
| retirement | pregnancy | sexual difficulties |
| change in financial status | death of a close friend | change in residence |
| son or daughter leaving home | holidays | |
